FAQ

How do I use my candle, oil, or bath the 'right' way

There's no one "right" way — only your way. These tools are meant to complement your spiritual lifestyle, not complicate it. Before using your candle, oil, or bath, set an intention — a clear, heartfelt statement like, "I'm ready to release what no longer serves me and welcome peace." Then, breathe, light, anoint, or soak with focus and gratitude. The power isn't in the product alone; it's in you showing up with presence. Our tools simply help you align, not perform.
